Homosassa man Arrested for Attempted Murder

The man who was shot by a CCSO deputy yesterday after running into his vehicle and then attempting to run him over was discharged from the hospital today and arrested in Pasco County on a Citrus County warrant. William Bryant, 21, of Homosassa, is charged with attempted murder on a law enforcement officer and aggravated fleeing and eluding. He has no bond.

The investigation into the incident is being conducted by FDLE, which is standard procedure. Again, we are thankful that our deputy is ok and that no others were injured during this dangerous altercation.

More charges are pending.
