Disturbing Video Circulating Internet

The Citrus County Sheriff's Office is fully aware of a video posted on social media sites, including Facebook, depicting a young female confessing to a homicide that allegedly occurred in Citrus County and various sex crimes.

Detectives have been looking into these claims since late last year. We have spent many hours investigating the statements made by this individual including detectives traveling out of state to interview her. Detectives have been unable to find ANY credible basis or evidence to substantiate any of her statements. With the disturbing content and statements made in this video, the Citrus County Sheriff's Office wants the public to know we cannot find any evidence to support the claims at this time.

This is an open and active investigation and every attempt will be made to follow up on any and every lead that develops. If you have any information about this individual or this case, please call our non-emergency line and ask for a Major Crimes detective or call Citrus County Crime Stoppers at 1-888-ANY-TIPS.
